Kansal launches Kisian Call Centre at SKUAST-J; says there is a need to introduce innovation in farming

JAMMU, Dec 31: Principal Secretary, Tourism Department, Rohil Kansal launched Kisian Call Centre at Jammu’s Kisian on the concluding day of the year. Principal Secretary Kansal said the Centre will provide all the necessary help to the farmers. They need to introduce innovation in farming which is also ensuring that all risks involved with agriculture are minimized. He informed that the Centre aims to enhance the farmers’ efforts through proper purchase of seeds, fertilizers and other inputs. He said the Centre has the potential to become a model for other places across the country. He said the Centre has been launched to provide various services to Jammu farmers. Principal Secretary Kansal said the Centre would play a pivotal role in providing necessary help to the farmers. Principal Secretary Kansal also called for better use of different varieties of seeds and practices to significantly improve the standard of farming in Jammu.

Chief Secretary directs RDD to speed up execution of works for people-centric development

URGES TO TARGET 4 LAKH MAHILA KISSAN UNDER MKPS NEXT YEAR

JAMMU, Dec 31: The Chief Secretary, Hemant Kanwar says the Department of Rural Development (RDD) has to speed up the execution of works under people-centric development activities. The Chief Secretary, Hemant Kanwar said the department head needs to ensure that the ongoing works are executed swiftly to ensure that the remaining works are completed within the stipulated time. He said that the department should be prepared to take up new works by the end of the current fiscal year. The Chief Secretary added that the department has been working overtime to meet the target of 10,000 works completed next year.

The Chief Secretary directed the department to ensure that the works are completed within the current fiscal year. The department head needs to ensure that the works are executed within the stipulated time to ensure that the remaining works are completed within the stipulated time. The Chief Secretary added that the department has been working overtime to meet the target of 10,000 works completed next year.

Doda, Kathua admin discusses Inoculation of Students in age group of 15-18

DODA, Dec 30: District Administration Doda and Kathua have held a meeting of concerned officials to finalize the plan for undertaking Covid vaccination for students in the age group of 15-18 years in both the districts.

The meeting was held at the District Administration Doda on Tuesday morning. The meeting was attended by District Biomedical Officer (DBMO) Doda, District Health Officer Kathua, District Health Officer Doda, District Health Officer Kathua, and representatives of DC, Health and Social Welfare Department.

It was informed that the necessary arrangement has been made to conduct the vaccination in both the districts. The meeting was attended by all the concerned officials and a detailed meeting was held to finalize the plan.

The meeting was attended by DC Doda, HC, and representatives of DBMO, Health and Social Welfare Department. It was informed that the necessary arrangement has been made to conduct the vaccination in both the districts. The meeting was attended by all the concerned officials and a detailed meeting was held to finalize the plan.

No food products shall carry Trans-fatty acids more than 2% by Jan 1, 2008

JAMMU, Dec 31: The Head of the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) has recommended the permissible amount of Trans-fatty acids (TFA) to 2% by January 1, 2008. The FSSAI has also directed the Food Business Operators (FBOs) to ensure compliance with the regulation from January 1, 2008. The FSSAI has also directed the FBOs to ensure compliance with the regulation from January 1, 2008.

Major reviews of development works at Rotary near Panama Chowk

JAMMU, Dec 31: Continuing its drive to provide best possible development facilities to the general public, the Mayor, JMC, Chander Mahajan today took stock of the ongoing upgradation works in the area near Rotary Chowk by the Jammu Municipal Corporation (JMC).

Speaking on the occasion, Mayor, Mahajan said "It was the long pending demands of the people and prominent citizens of the area. The upgradation & upgradation of this prestigious area in the prominent Chowk will ensure that the people living near this area will enjoy the same facility as the people living near other important and bustling areas of the city. This much work achieved in a short span of 10 days by the Public Works Department with an approximate amount of Rs. 90 lakhs. This month, the area near Rotary Chowk will be completely developed,“ said Mayor.

Calling on Ram Madhav, Daggubati, discusses evaluation upcoming polls in J&K

JAMMU, Dec 31: Senior BJP leader and former Union minister Ram Madhav today called on J&K leader of Opposition, J&K branch chief of Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) Kavinder Gupta to discuss the party’s preparation for upcoming polls in the Union Territory.

Speaking at a press statement issued today, the out-of-the-box, the Mayor, Jammu Municipal Corporation (JMC) recently completed the construction of the famous "Rotary" in the city. The JMC, which has six Assembly seats in the Union Territory, had set a target of constructing 100 works within the current fiscal year.

Advocate and writer, Mr. Samir Varma, who is also a member of the Managing Committee of the JKK EVDUZ, was present on the occasion. Speaking on the occasion, he expressed gratitude to the Principal Secretary Kansal and said that the Centre will provide all the necessary help to the farmers. They need to introduce innovation in farming which is also ensuring that all risks involved with agriculture are minimized. He informed that the Centre aims to enhance the farmers’ efforts through proper purchase of seeds, fertilizers and other inputs. He said the Centre has the potential to become a model for other places across the country. He said the Centre has been launched to provide various services to Jammu farmers. Principal Secretary Kansal said the Centre would play a pivotal role in providing necessary help to the farmers. Principal Secretary Kansal also called for better use of different varieties of seeds and practices to significantly improve the standard of farming in Jammu.

Chief Secretary directs RDD to speed up execution of works for people-centric development

URGES TO TARGET 4 LAKH MAHILA KISSAN UNDER MKPS NEXT YEAR

JAMMU, Dec 31: The Chief Secretary, Hemant Kanwar says the Department of Rural Development (RDD) has to speed up the execution of works under people-centric development activities. The Chief Secretary, Hemant Kanwar said the department head needs to ensure that the ongoing works are executed swiftly to ensure that the remaining works are completed within the stipulated time. He said that the department should be prepared to take up new works by the end of the current fiscal year. The Chief Secretary added that the department has been working overtime to meet the target of 10,000 works completed next year.

The Chief Secretary directed the department to ensure that the works are completed within the current fiscal year. The department head needs to ensure that the works are executed within the stipulated time to ensure that the remaining works are completed within the stipulated time. The Chief Secretary added that the department has been working overtime to meet the target of 10,000 works completed next year.

Doda, Kathua admin discusses Inoculation of Students in age group of 15-18

DODA, Dec 30: District Administration Doda and Kathua have held a meeting of concerned officials to finalize the plan for undertaking Covid vaccination for students in the age group of 15-18 years in both the districts.

The meeting was held at the District Administration Doda on Tuesday morning. The meeting was attended by District Biomedical Officer (DBMO) Doda, District Health Officer Kathua, District Health Officer Doda, District Health Officer Kathua, and representatives of DC, Health and Social Welfare Department.

It was informed that the necessary arrangement has been made to conduct the vaccination in both the districts. The meeting was attended by all the concerned officials and a detailed meeting was held to finalize the plan.

No food products shall carry Trans-fatty acids more than 2% by Jan 1, 2008

JAMMU, Dec 31: The Head of the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) has recommended the permissible amount of Trans-fatty acids (TFA) to 2% by January 1, 2008. The FSSAI has also directed the Food Business Operators (FBOs) to ensure compliance with the regulation from January 1, 2008. The FSSAI has also directed the FBOs to ensure compliance with the regulation from January 1, 2008.

Major reviews of development works at Rotary near Panama Chowk

JAMMU, Dec 31: Continuing its drive to provide best possible development facilities to the general public, the Mayor, JMC, Chander Mahajan today took stock of the ongoing upgradation works in the area near Rotary Chowk by the Jammu Municipal Corporation (JMC).

Speaking on the occasion, Mayor, Mahajan said "It was the long pending demands of the people and prominent citizens of the area. The upgradation & upgradation of this prestigious area in the prominent Chowk will ensure that the people living near this area will enjoy the same facility as the people living near other important and bustling areas of the city. This much work achieved in a short span of 10 days by the Public Works Department with an approximate amount of Rs. 90 lakhs. This month, the area near Rotary Chowk will be completely developed,“ said Mayor.

Calling on Ram Madhav, Daggubati, discusses evaluation upcoming polls in J&K

JAMMU, Dec 31: Senior BJP leader and former Union minister Ram Madhav today called on J&K leader of Opposition, J&K branch chief of Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) Kavinder Gupta to discuss the party’s preparation for upcoming polls in the Union Territory.

Speaking at a press statement issued today, the out-of-the-box, the Mayor, Jammu Municipal Corporation (JMC) recently completed the construction of the famous "Rotary" in the city. The JMC, which has six Assembly seats in the Union Territory, had set a target of constructing 100 works within the current fiscal year.